CUBAN GOLD BONDS.

Provisional Republic Makes a Financial Move.

SEALED PROPOSALS ASKED FOR.

The Bonds Are to be of Coupon Form Payable in Gold at Six Per Cent and in Denominations of $1,000, $500, $100 and $50—No Bid Received Under Sixty Per Cent of the Face Value.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The World publishes the following: Gold bonds of the provisional republic of Cuba will soon be on the market. The securities are already engraved. Sealed proposals for their purchase have been asked, so that the long anticipated financial move on the part of the revolutionists is actually made.

The entire issue planned is $10,000,000, but the first debenture will involve only $2,000,000 of the whole. The bonds are to be of coupon form, payable in gold at 6 per cent, in denominations of $1,000, $500, $100 and $50, principal and interest payable in Havana or New York.

The recitals in the bonds make principal due 10 years after the evacuation of the island of Cuba by the Spanish forces and all revenues are pledged to the payment of principal and interest. It is understood that while the time is specified for the redemption of the coupons payment may be deferred until six months after the evacuation by Spain. They are to be receivable as taxes in proportion of one-fifth. There is no upset price, but no bid under 60 per cent of the face value will be received.

The authority to issue the bonds is conferred on Thomas Estrada Palma, delegate plenipotentiary of the government of the republic of Cuba to the United States, by Salvador Cisneros Betancourt, president of the republic.

Several Wall street bankers when seen in reference to the matter expressed their belief that the bonds would command a fair price.

Edward F. Draper of Boston, president of the Globe Electric company, said: "I have come over here especially in quest of Cuban bonds. I have reason to believe that I can place at least a quarter of a million of them. There is no doubt about the financial success of the issue. The people of Boston knowing that the proceeds of the bonds are to be invested solely for the purpose of furthering the war, they will invest largely through sympathy."

It is said that one of the ablest men in Wall street is conducting the bond issue for the committee of three Cuban merchants appointed by Minister Palma sometime ago to perfect the details of the deal.

IT MAY END THE WAR.

Spain Willing to Accept the Good Offices of the United States.

CHICAGO, April 16.—A special dispatch to The Times-Herald from Washington says: There is now hope that the efforts of the United States to mediate between Spain and the Cuban insurgents will result in the bringing about of negotiations between the rebel leaders and the Spanish government. At least Spain shows signs of acceding to the request recently made by President Cleveland for acceptance of the good offices of the United States.

The negotiations are in the hands of Secretary Olney and Senor de Lome, the Spanish minister. Senor de Lome acting under instructions from his government has made certain inquiries as to the method which the president proposed to follow. If the Spanish minister of foreign affairs finally accepts the good offices of this government, General Fitzhugh Lee, our new consul general at Havana, will be instructed to sound the insurgent leaders as to their willingness to accept reforms in Cuba and on these being guaranteed, to lay down their arms.

ARMS FOR THE CUBANS.

Nearly Six Thousand Machetes Which Will Soon Be Shipped to the Revolutionists.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Stowed away in the hold of the steamship Teutonic when that vessel reached her pier yesterday were arms to be shipped to Cuba for the use of the insurgents. The arms were purchased abroad by an agent of the revolutionary party.

There are 74 cases of the machetes and each case is said to contain one-half gross of the weapons. There are also 19 cases containing shovels and machetes. The shovels in the package are said to be few, and were packed in simply to make it appear that the cases were intended for the use of sugar growers.

The machetes were used originally by the Cubans for cutting sugar cane. The instruments are as long as sabres. Cubans are dexterous in the handling of them and an army of Cubans can do more damage with the machetes at close range than they can with rifles. There are enough of the machetes on the Teutonic to arm nearly 6,000 men.

An Ore Hauler's Crime.

CENTRAL CITY, Colo., April 16.—Samuel Covington, an ore hauler, in a rage yesterday caused by an attachment of his wages, shot City Marshal Michael Kelleher and ex-Mayor Dick Williams. Covington then started to drive off in his wagon and was pursued by 100 men. Henry Lehman shot Covington, killing him. Kelleher is expected to die. Williams will recover.

CHEATED THE CHAIR.

Charles Morris Cuts His Throat in His Cell With a Razor.

XENIA, O., April 16.—Charles Morris, the condemned murderer of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Douthett committed suicide in the county jail here yesterday morning. Morris' trial ended about three weeks ago, after an exciting session of 15 days, Morris being found guilty of murder in the first degree, and Judge Smith had sentenced him to be hanged on July 24, and he was to have been taken to the Columbus penitentiary in a few days to be placed in the annex there.

Sheriff Grieve received his commitment papers Tuesday night and decided to take the prisoner to Columbus yesterday. He went to the jail to tell Morris to get ready for the trip, when the prisoner excused himself, saying he wanted to go to the water closet, where there is a little recess in the wall. There, obscured from the eyes of the sheriff and other persons, he drew a razor across his throat, making a hole big enough to insert a tin cup, and the blood spattered in all directions. He walked a few feet and fell.

The body was removed to Moore & Broadstone's undertaking establishment, where it was viewed by thousands of excited people. The county will lose about $3,000 and costs, which could have been recovered from the state if Morris had been taken to Columbus. Where Morris got the razor is a mystery, but it is supposed he had it hidden away for an emergency.

MINERS HAPPY.

For the First Time They Have No Grievance to Report.

COLUMBUS, O., April 16.—Ex-President John McBride of the American Federation of Labor addressed the national miners' convention congratulating the delegates on the fact that for the first time in the history of the convention there had been a grievance committee with no grievance to report. He said the miners made a great mistake in too frequently denouncing their leaders as demagogues.

A proposition was submitted providing that hereafter any mine which has been organized for three months, and such organization has been allowed to lapse, it shall be in good condition for one year before being again entitled to representation in the national convention. The delegates to the next convention will be instructed by their constituents how to vote on the proposition.

It was decided to hold the convention hereafter the second week in January instead of April.

Resolutions were adopted favoring free silver and urging the adoption of cash payments and abolishing of company stores.

A resolution was adopted favoring a rate of 62 1/2 cents summer, and 70 cents winter, for mining in the Wilmington (Ills.) coal field, 15 cents per ton to be credited to brushing and keeping roads.

FOREST FIRES.

Four Villages Are in Danger of Destruction From the Flames.

SANDWICH, Mass., April 16.—A forest fire started from a pile of burning weeds in a yard in Gataumet village yesterday, leaped into a grove of pine trees and was soon burning fiercely over an area of 100 acres. A call for aid to quench the flames was made to neighboring villages and about 50 men responded, but their efforts were useless and the flames swept steadily onward. The villages of Cataumet and Wenamet are in danger of destruction. The fire is extending towards this place, Monument Beach and Bourne village. The villagers are working under the direction of the fire wardens and much excitement prevails.

A second fire is burning in the woods between Barnstable and West Barnstable.

It is estimated that 15 miles of territory in length, varying from one to four miles in width, has been swept by the flames. No lives have been lost.

Italians Ordered Back to Italy.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The immigration authorities at Ellis Island yesterday ordered 531 Italians, at present detained there, to be sent back to Italy. Twenty-six were deported yesterday and the others will be sent home as fast as possible. Commissioner Seiner last night telephoned to the treasury department at Washington that he did not like the attitude of the deported men and their friends, and appealed to the department for permission to swear in special guards. The commissioner also asked for permission to arm the guards, so that they will be able to cope with the men should any violence be attempted.

Tornado in South Dakota.

FAULKTON, S. D., April 16.—A tornado passed through Faulkton county northeast yesterday evening, resulting in two deaths and several injured. Considerable damage was done at Cresbard, Millard and Burkemere. Several houses and barns were blown away. The residence of E. T. Evans, near Cresbard, was completely destroyed, killing his two children and badly injuring himself and wife. At Burkemere the Winona Mill company's elevator was demolished and the Cresbard church was removed from its foundation.

CHICAGO, April 16.—The school census of this city, now practically complete, shows the city to have a population of approximately 1,770,000. This is an increase of 200,000 over the school census of two years ago. The directory estimate of 1895 was 1,695,000.

BERING SEA TREATY.

It Has Been Ratified by the United States Senate.

AN ARBITRATION COMMISSION.

They Will Consider Claims Made by Citizens of England Against the United States For Seizures of Vessels Engaged in the Capture of Fur Seals Prior to the Paris Award.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The senate has passed the bill for the protection and preservation of the burial places of soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812. The bill provides for an appropriation of $17,000 to enable the secretary of war to purchase or accept by donation the site of Fort Meigs, O., and the burial places adjacent, and the burial place at Put-in-Bay in which are interred the remains of soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812.

The bill also provides for the inclosing of the fort and such burial places and the erection of suitable monuments to the dead soldiers. The bill also provides that the appropriation is made upon the express condition that the state of Ohio appropriate a like sum ($17,000) or same be secured by any association of citizens and placed at the disposal of the secretary of war for the purpose of this act. Upon fulfillment of these conditions, the secretary of war has the right to condemn land needed to carry into effect this act, the condemnation proceedings to be prosecuted in accordance with the laws relating to such suits in Ohio.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The senate has passed the bill for the protection and preservation of the burial places of soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812. To Arrange a Treaty of Peace.

NEW YORK, April 16.—The Herald correspondent in San Salvador says that Vice President Prudencio Alfaro has just returned from his special mission to Nicaragua to arrange a treaty of peace between the revolutionists and President Zelaya. He said: "In compliance with the instructions of my government I called on both the revolutionary and the government parties. I was well received, but found it impossible to make any kind of arrangement for peace. President Zelaya," he added, "has a strong support and will eventually crush the rebellion."

No More Free Alcohol.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The house committee on ways and means has decided to report favorably the bill introduced by Mr. C. W. Stone of Pennsylvania to repeal the section of the Wilson act which gives free alcohol for use in the arts and manufactures. The internal revenue officials have acknowledged their inability to carry out the provisions of the law. Great frauds are said to be possible under the law and many large claims have been piled up against the government under the law.

Ex-Consul Waller in Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Ex-Consul Waller of Madagascar came over to Washington from his home in Baltimore last night, and will go to the state department with his stepson, Paul Bray, and seek an interview with Secretary Olney. Bray was deported from Madagascar to Zanzibar at the same time that Waller was incarcerated, and he will claim damages for illegal deportation. A restoration of Waller's valuable concession also will be urged.

Convicts Cured of Consumption.

PITTSBURG, April 16.—The ascertolite cure for consumption has been tried on three convicts in the western penitentiary with remarkable success. The convicts all had pulmonary tuberculosis and were considered incurable. A month's treatment shows an uninterrupted record of rapid and marvelous improvement until the patients are to external appearances well men.

Venezuelan Warship Sails.

NEW YORK, April 16.—A special to The Herald from Laguaya, Venezuela, says: The Venezuelan warship Rivas, with troops on board under the command of General Paredes, has sailed from this port. The vessel steered an easterly course. Her commander has sealed orders. The sailing of the warship is regarded here as significant.

Regarded as Suicide.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., April 16.—Ex-Mayor W. W. Gilreath of Greenville, S. C., one of the most prominent men in the state, was found dead in his office in Greenville, early yesterday morning. A pistol with which he had been shot was found by his side. It is supposed to be a case of suicide.

A Myriad Matabeles.

LONDON, April 16.—An official dispatch from Bulawayo says: It is impossible to estimate the numbers of the enemy. The whole country is now in the hands of the rebellious natives, and they are massing in great force northward. It will require a large force of troops to dislodge them.

Congressman Gibson Renominated.

KNOXVILLE, April 16.—Congressman H. R. Gibson of the Second congressional district of Tennessee was renominated by the Republican congressional convention here yesterday. He had no opposition; nomination is equivalent to an election as the district is strongly Republican.

A Missionary Knapp Heard From.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 16.—Rev. George Knapp, the American missionary stationed at Bitlis, who was charged by the Turkish authorities with stirring up the Armenians to revolt, and who was afterward said to be arrested by the police, has arrived at Aleppo.

NEWSPAPER VICTORY

Walton's Legal Advertising Bill Defeated in the House.

LIQUOR SERVED IN RESTAURANTS

Heusley's Prohibition Bill Only Carried Fifteen Votes and Was Defeated—A Number of Other Measures Acted on by the House—Doubts of the House and Senate—Other Ohio State News.

COLUMBUS, O., April 16.—The house got down to hard business yesterday again and disposed of a number of bills.

Mr. Walton's bill, providing that all legal advertising shall be printed in one paper, instead of two, and let to the lowest bidder, and providing that county commissioners' reports shall be printed in pamphlet form, instead of in the newspapers, was defeated.

The bill by Mr. Heusley to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in restaurants was ignominiously defeated, notwithstanding an outburst of eloquence from the temperance side of the house. It received only 18 votes. Bills were passed as follows:

Appropriating $900 to defray the expenses of the commission appointed by the governor to locate positions of Ohio regiments on the battlefield of Antietam.

Requiring interlocking switches to be placed at all grade crossings of steam and electric railroads and safety devices at swing and draw bridges.

Requiring railroad companies to put a top board on barbed wire fences.

Abolishing the office of county infirmary directors after 1899.

Providing for the repeal of the portion of the dairy and food law which gives the informant one-half the fees collected.

Giving city councils the full power to control and regulate the stringing of electric light, power and package carrier wires.

Requiring railroad companies to put fire extinguishers in all passenger cars.

Permitting railroads consolidating in Ohio to issue bonds in excess of their capital stock.

Providing that voters shall remain 100 feet from polls at primary elections.

Providing that councils may renew grants for franchises to street railway companies.

Making it a felony to harbor females under 18 in houses of ill-fame.

Providing for the appointment of a commission of five members by the governor to report as to the advisability of selling or leasing a part or all of the Ohio canal system.

Providing for the appointing of live commissioners to represent Ohio at the Tennessee centennial exposition at Nashville.

In the senate the Clark bill prohibiting sweatshops was defeated. It got only 14 votes.

Among the bills passed were the following:

Repealing Section 975, the law providing for outdoor relief.

Requiring managers of the Ohio reformatory to let contracts to the lowest bidders or reject all bids.

Authorizing Cleveland to issue $150,000 bonds and construct sewers.

Providing that county commissioners, township trustees and boards of education, except in cities of the first class, shall not incur any obligation for the payment of money unless the auditor or clerk thereof shall first certify that the money to meet such obligation is in the treasury or has been levied and placed on the duplicate.

Making appropriations to meet deficiencies.

According to the present program, Senator Shattuck's terminal facilities bill will never see the light of day in the house. Chairman Kelley of the committee on railroads and telegraphs says the present understanding is that no effort will be made to report the bill back to the house. "Everybody now seems to be afraid of the bill," he says.

We presume Major McKinley will have to get out of the Presidential race, now that the A. P. A.'s are against him.

The cry of the umpire, "play ball," will gladden the hearts of over 100,000 "fans" throughout the land to-day.

The Carlisle Mercury very truthfully remarks that "Republican harmony in McKinley can scarcely be told from Democratic harmony."

NEARLY half the district delegates from Kentucky are instructed for McKinley. That Bradley band wagon isn't loaded very heavily yet.

The McKinley Republicans are raising a terrible howl because the A. P. A.'s are fighting their man. Nobody has given this secret oath-bound organization more support and encouragement than the Republicans, and if the g. o. p. should be split wide open by the A. P. A.'s it will be just what the "grand old party" deserves.

The man who stands by and sees the life fading out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming old and faded and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigorous, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable "examinations" and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if she needs persuasion, to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This truly wonderful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for thirty years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain cure for all derangements, weaknesses, irregularities and dispepsions of internal organs peculiar to women.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

Weekly Bulletin of the Weather Bureau as to the Outlook in This State.

[For the week ending Monday, April 13th.]

The weather conditions of the past week were highly favorable to all agricultural interests. The first two days were cool, but the latter portion was abnormally warm. Light scattered showers occurred throughout the week, and though there was a fair percentage of cloudy weather, the amount of sunshine received was amply sufficient for the needs of vegetation, which made rapid progress during the week. A continuance of the conditions described is all that farmers could desire. The season is still backward, however, and farmers generally are pushing their spring work to the utmost.

Western Kentucky.—The general tone of reports from this section are very favorable, except for the complaints of backwardness of the season, which it would appear is about two weeks late. Farm work has made great progress during the week. The greater portion of corn land has been broken, and corn planting has been done in Marshall, Trigg, Todd and adjacent counties. The work will be in full progress within the course of the next few days, provided favorable weather continues. Fruit trees of all kinds are in full bloom, and except for some slight damage from the frosts of last week, the outlook for a good crop, especially of peaches, is excellent. Gardening has made considerable progress during the week, and is rapidly being pushed to completion. Oats are coming up nicely, and the present outlook is very favorable. Tobacco is generally up in the beds, and plants are reported to be abundant, and as yet no injury from insects has been reported. Pastures and meadows have improved greatly during the week, and their condition is generally reported to be very good. Wheat has also improved, but except in portions of a few counties its condition is reported as being from poor to fair. There is much complaint that it has been winter-killed and that it is thin and uneven.

Central Kentucky.—Conditions very favorable for farm work. A great deal of plowing was done during the week, but as yet practically no corn has been planted, though the work will be begun within the course of the next few days. The seedling of oats is about completed and they are up in some places and look well. Strawberries are reported to be badly winter-killed in many localities, but except for this, the prospect for fruit is generally excellent. Peach and plum trees are in full bloom and apple buds are just commencing to burst. Grasses of all kinds have grown very rapidly during the week and pastures and meadows look well as a rule. In some sections tobacco is reported to be backward, but in localities where the plants are up in the beds, they are reported to be in good condition. In this section of the State, there are but very few reports which dissent from the general opinion as to the poor condition of wheat. It is badly winter-killed in many localities and some farmers are plowing it under and preparing the soil for corn.

Eastern Kentucky.—The weather conditions in this section of the State were not quite so favorable as those which prevailed in other portions. There was more rain and a smaller percentage of sunshine, but despite this great progress was made in all lines of farm work, and vegetation made a most decided advance. During the latter half of the week much plowing was done, though the work is still incomplete, and no corn has been planted.

The seedling of oats was rapidly pushed forward, and some of the earlier sown are up and look well. As in other sections of the State, the outlook for fruit is good, peaches and plums showing very fine blossoms. The tobacco plants are up in some beds and look well and are very plentiful. Correspondents generally report wheat to be in poor condition, though improved during the past week.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Guntherman, of Dimond, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

MISS KATE BLATTERMAN,

A Maysville Lady, Highly Complimented as a Concert Pianist

[Kansas City Journal, April 8th.]

There was a large and much interested audience at Lyceum hall yesterday afternoon when Miss Kate Blatterman made her local debut as a concert pianist. Miss Blatterman is a recent acquisition to Kansas City. She is a pupil of America's greatest pianist, William H. Sherwood; was for a time a teacher in the piano department of the College of Music, Cincinnati, and has located here as one of the assistants of Mrs. Ella Baucks-Behr. In a program of wide range she yesterday demonstrated quite superior claims to musical distinction. In a general estimate it would be said that her playing is delicate rather than brilliant; poetic rather than bravura. She has exceptionally delicate technic and marked poetry of temperament, which, combined in certain passages, result in rare expression.

The opening number was the Beethoven sonata, opus 31, No. 2, in the playing of which Miss Blatterman displayed a little nervousness, but not enough to seriously mar a really excellent interpretation, especially of the largo and the adagio movements. She played the Rheinberger "Chase" with dashing spirit and clear enunciation. A particularly good interpretation was that of the Chopin F sharp major nocturne. The feature of the programme, however, was the F sharp minor concerto, with orchestral part supplied on a second piano by Mrs. Behr. The number is one of singular structural beauty and a good deal of fancy. It has a wide range of expression, but every change was grasped, although the best of Miss Blatterman's work was in the andante movement. Mrs. Behr's part in the interpretation was, of course, admirable, as her work always is.

Although Miss Blatterman would seem to possess qualities that are very effective in teaching—those of scholarship and thoroughness—she should play in public a great deal. The dominance of the characteristics named give her style at present a certain exactness that sometimes interferes with the fullest freedom of expression, a shortcoming that may easily be overcome with the confidence that comes of continued experience.

Miss Blatterman is a native of Maysville and has resided here the greater part of her life. She is now a resident of Kansas City where she is permanently settled as a teacher of music. Her many Maysville friends will be glad to learn of her success.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the Spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malaria poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

CHARLES TILGHMAN HILLEARY:

Death Claims One of Maysville's Popular Young Business Men.

Mr. Charles Tilghman Hilleary, who had been at the point of death several days, passed away Wednesday afternoon about 5 o'clock at his residence on Second street near Lexington.

His health had been failing a year or so, and last summer he was dangerously ill for month or two, but recovered, and his friends were in hopes he had been fully restored. About six weeks ago, however, he was again stricken down, and although all was done that loving hands and medical skill could do, it did not serve to check his decline. His death resulted from consumption.

Deceased was born at Petersville, Md., November 5th, 1868, and was the son of Dr. J. W. and Elizabeth Laird (Henderson) Hilleary. His parents being connected with many of the most prominent families of Maryland and Virginia. His father is Chief Surgeon of the B. O. Railway. Deceased completed his education at Washington and Lee University, and there was no more popular student at the college than he. He came to Maysville in 1892, and the rest of his brief span of life was spent here. He had embarked in several business enterprises here, being engaged in the merchant tailoring business when stricken by his last illness. A gentleman in the truest sense of the word, kind hearted, with a smile and a pleasant word for all, he had won a host of warm friends in his adopted home, who learn with sincere sorrow of his sad death.

His wife was Miss Nannie E. Trapnell, daughter of Rev. Joseph Trapnell, one of the leading Episcopal ministers of Maryland. She survives, and he leaves two young children, a son and daughter.

The remains will be taken to his old home for interment, leaving here probably not before to-morrow, the B. and O. Railway tendering a private coach to the sorrowing family for the trip. The funeral will occur at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Frederick County, Md., and will likely take place next Sunday.

VANCEBURG Sun: "Mr. A. P. Darrow, who was recently shaken up in a wreck on one of the Southern roads, is recuperating at his former home—this city. Mr. Darrow had quite a narrow escape in this accident, having three ribs broken and his shoulder, hip and face considerably bruised. He is getting along nicely however, and says that as soon as able will tackle it again—not another wreck, he hopes, but the road. This last was the fifth experience he had had with wrecks, but none so serious."

THE LATE THOMAS P. WHITE.

A Tribute to the Deceased From the Louisville Post.

The remains of the late Thomas Porter White, father of Mrs. Charles D. Pearce, of this city, were interred at Louisville Tuesday afternoon. The Louisville Post, in an editorial, pays the following tribute to deceased: "Mr. T. P. White, whose death occurred Saturday afternoon, was a merchant of the old school, whose name was respected throughout the South, and whose business career was an honor to the city in which he lived. He retired from active business some years ago, and his special field of activity is not open to this generation. Time, progress, the building of railroads, and various combinations has transferred this business from Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis, to other places, and to other hands. The men who thirty and forty years ago made this city the center of great commercial activity deserve to be remembered by this generation as they were respected and honored by the last."

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Myall Celebrate the Fiftieth Anniversary of Their Marriage.

On Saturday, April 11th, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Myall, of Hutchison, Bourbon County, but formerly of Mayslick, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

The Paris Kentuckian says: "This worthy couple, who have shared the lights and shadows, the joys and sorrows of life for so long, bear the weight of years so lightly that they bid fair to celebrate many more anniversaries of that interesting event, which occurred in the spring time of their lives, when, with brave hearts and determined purpose, they assumed those vows which united them for better or for worse, and commenced the real battle of life. Together they have ascended the sunny slope, and hand in hand they are descending into the valley of years, ever mindful each of the other's interest and pleasures. The bridegroom of fifty years ago enjoyed relating in his quiet manner how he stole a march on the boys of Mayslick, where he resided. These same boys, brimming over with fun and mischief, omitted no opportunity for the enjoyment of a joke, especially delighting in serenading young married couple in rather a boisterous way. Mr. Myall, determined to outwit them for once, so he went to Maysville on Saturday, the 11th of April, to procure his marriage license. On the way, he stopped at Washington, the home of his fair bride-elect, Miss Sallie E. Peck, and told her to be ready for the ceremony on his return; instead of waiting until the following Wednesday, the day which had been previously appointed for the wedding. She consented, the few witnesses were bound to secrecy, and in this way the boys were disappointed, as they did not hear of the marriage for nearly a week after."

"Six children have blessed this union, three of whom survive—Mrs. Ollie M. Johnson, of Muir; Mrs. Oscar M. Johnson, of Millersburg, and Mr. E. J. Myall, of Paris. There are six grandchildren." Among those present at the anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Enneas Myall and daughter, Miss Myra, and Mr. Jonas Myall, of Mayslick, and Mrs. Mary Riley, of Maysville.

There were three other parties represented who had golden weddings, Mr. and Mrs. Enneas Myall; Henry Harp and wife, nee Parker; Noah Boone and wife, nee Ingles.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Entire Day Devoted to the Dupont Contested Election Case.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The senate spent the entire day on the Dupont case, Mr. Gray of Delaware arguing against the claim of Mr. Dupont. During the day Mr. Gorman proposed an agreement that a final vote on the Dupont case be taken next Wednesday. Mr. Mitchell, in charge of the case, declined to make an agreement at this time. This tender by Mr. Gorman was regarded as significant of the confidence of the opposition to Mr. Dupont to resist his claims to a seat. Mr. Gray will proceed with his speech, after which there is promise of a further clash over taking up the bond resolution, as Mr. Allison stated yesterday that the bond question must give way to the appropriation bills.

Mr. Gray yielded at 4 o'clock, and the senate went into executive session. At 4:55 the senate resumed its open session. Bills were passed amending the law relating to the protection of salmon fisheries in Alaska; for the sale of public lands by private sale in the state of Missouri; and to pay the heirs of Sterling D. Austin $59,287; appropriating $17,000 for acquiring burial grounds at Fort Meigs and Put-in-Bay Island, O., and the interment therein of the remains of soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812.

At 5:30 p. m., the senate adjourned.

Brown was sentenced to seven years for burglary from Oakland county Sept. 26, 1895. He was about 33 years of age.

Six other convicts took advantage of the excitement and rushed out of the grinding shop where they were employed, but did not attempt to scale the wall.

Syrup of Figs

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed.

If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
